LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

DECEMBER 1-5, 2026
SILANG, PHILIPPINES

Adventist Health INTERNATIONAL | LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY HEALTH

Concurrent CONFERENCES

CAMEL
Consortium of Adventist Medical Education Leaders

The Consortium of Adventist Medical Education Leaders (CAMEL) includes leaders from Seventh-day Adventist schools of dentistry, medicine, and pharmacy from around the world to strengthen health professions education through collaboration and shared learning.

LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY
School of Nursing

The Loma Linda University School of Nursing's Global Nursing department and Loma Linda University Medical Center's Staff Development department bring together nurse leaders to explore real-world challenges, exchange practical strategies, and discover ways to strengthen their leadership impact. Sessions focus on empowering teams and advancing mission-driven, whole-person care across diverse healthcare settings.

WELCOME

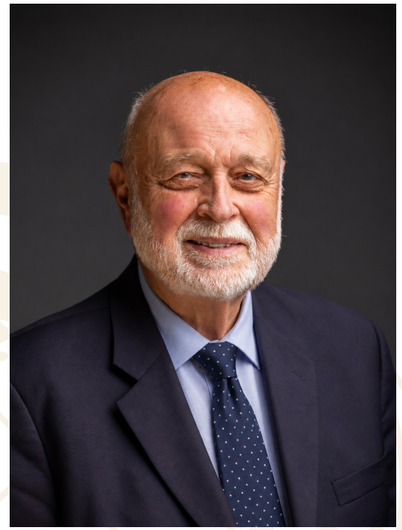

It is a privilege to welcome you to the Global Healthcare Leadership Academy. We are united by a shared calling to extend the teaching and healing ministry of Jesus Christ across countries, cultures, and professions. I am grateful to learn alongside you, strengthen our global community, and imagine new possibilities for the future of healthcare.

Anthony A. Hilliard, MD, FACC
President, Loma Linda University Health
CEO, Loma Linda University Health Hospitals

Each time we gather as a global healthcare and education community, I am reminded that the true strength of the Adventist Church has always been its people. The Global Healthcare Leadership Academy provides a meaningful opportunity to reconnect and strengthen the relationships that sustain our work. I am especially grateful to gather with colleagues and friends from around the world.

Richard H. Hart, MD, DrPH
President, Adventist Health International
